REMARKS

Defendant appeared, in custody, with counsel.

USA made factual proffers and presented argument in support of Defendant's continued detention due to risk of non-appearance and the safety of the community.

Defense counsel made factual proffers in support of Defendant's release, arguing Defendant does not pose a risk of non-appearance and/or safety to the community.

U.S. Probation Officer Jonathan Bot addressed the Court and recommended Defendant's release. Rebuttal.

The Court ordered:

1. USA's Motion for Detention is denied.
2. Defendant released on the conditions previously imposed with the addition of the following additional conditions pending the revocation hearing:
 - GPS
 - Home Confinement, except for work, treatment, medical and court matters
 - Probation has discretion to modify Defendant's schedule and home confinement
 - Defendant to release this date and must report to U.S. Probation by 9:00 a.m. the following day, August 29, 2024.

*Previously Scheduled Revocation of Supervised Release Hearing:
09/25/2024 @ 9:30 a.m. [S/TOR]
